

TRAUMA STRESS MANAGEMENT (TSM)

CERTIFIED
PRACTITIONERS

Infinite Security Solutions are the first Risk Management company to have trained and certified trauma stress management practitioners on a global scale.

- TMS is a unique management strategy aimed to assist and support employees and organisations after a traumatic incident
- Through a tailored risk assessment based process TSM has the ability to signpost individuals that may require professional assistance (i.e. therapy)
- TSM can be seen as a mental wellbeing system which ultimately has affect in relation to the Moral, Legal and Financial aspects of an organisation
- Implementing TSM in an organisation allows employees to talk to an experienced set of certified experts making the individual feel valued and appreciated
- Has a positive impact on organisations as it projects a positive mental wellness culture
- Allows HR to understand the organisations employees and offer support where and when needed
- Applying TSM practices to the work place shows an organisations pro-active commitment to it's employees and their well being which in turn can strengthen existing compliance requirements
- Every organisation will experience some form of crisis situation or traumatic event
- Applying TSM practices to the work place shows an organisation pro-active commitment to it's employees and their well being which in turn can strengthen existing compliance requirements
- Less likely to be found in breach of duty as confidential counselling, support and treatment service will be in place
- Through TSM methods and support mechanisms it has been noticed that efficiency and productiveness have risen amongst individuals that previously had Trauma Stress related issues
